Divine Restoration Prayer

I call on the power of Divine Restoration
My good of past and present is now divinely restored to me.
All the blessings that should have been mine are still available to me, in whatever present form is best.

They have not been lost. They still come forth in God's own wise and perfect ways.

I claim my present blessings too.

The good that is for me now presses upon me and I accept it.

I am receiving now.

I am receiving my highest good of mind, body and affairs now!
My accumulated good of past and present now pour forth into my life as rich blessings.

This is a time of Divine fulfillment.

I welcome my accumulated good now.

I give thanks for Divine Restoration of Mind, Body and Affairs.
