

ALLORAH'S INSIGHTS

It is in giving that we receive. As we sow abundantly we reap abundantly. This is THE DIVINE LAW.

As I give and share generously and abundantly, my life is blessed with great financial and material prosperity.

Money flows to me easily, constantly and in great abundance. Whatever I invest comes back to me many, many times.

My life is blessed with so much abundance, so much prosperity, so much success.

I am blessed with tremendous prosperity and I live a life of moderation, discipline and spirituality.

I am healthy and very happy. I am enjoying every moment of my life of my life.

May every person, every being be blessed with good health, happiness, prosperity and spirituality.

With thanks and in full faith.
So be it.
